

RECLAIMING YOUR TEENAGE FIRE

AN INTENSIVE WEEKEND OF DISCOVERY

Designed for any man interested in examining his life in a profound way

Reclaiming Your Teenage Fire is a one-and-a-half-day workshop that has you re-visit your own hopes, fears, dreams, and experiences of adolescence.

You will gain clarity on the price you paid as you survived your adolescence and have the opportunity to let go of behaviours and beliefs that you took on; many of which may still be driving your life today.

You will reclaim the true parts of you that were left behind on the battlefield and honour yourself in a powerful way.

You will come to know yourself better as you identify and affirm your own core values and beliefs. You will strengthen your personal relationships, fortify your community, and help build a better world.
